EXPLOSION AND DEATH AT PEAK'S MILL

On Tuesday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, the boiler of the combination grist and sawmill, of Gregory Bros., at Peak's Mill, let go and wrecked the building, the boiler itself being thrown some twenty-five feet from its position.

A number of gentlemen were standing near, and were all blown down by the force of the explosion or hit by the boiler.

Mr. Bert Perry, a young man employed by the Gregories, was instantly killed; Mr. Sol. Wainscott, another employee, was fatally injured; the other parties near were pretty badly shaken up, but escaped further injury by almost a miracle.

Everyone was shocked at the terrible news, and there was a somewhat similar accident happened near the same place by which five persons were instantly killed.

Some fifteen years ago a somewhat similar accident happened near the same place by which five persons were instantly killed.

It was owned by the Gregories.

It was originally built by Mr. Chesterfield Warren, an old citizen of the Forks of Elkhorn, and Mr. E. W. Gregory, the father of the present owners.

WASN'T THE MAN HE WANTED.

A rather serious incident with laughable results, occurred on the L. & N. train to Lexington Saturday afternoon. A well known practical joker got on the train at a small station in Henry county, and, thinking he saw a mutual friend in the smoker, he strode in front of him and yelled out "You are the very man I am looking for," making as if to draw his gun.

The quiet stranger was too quick for him, and landed a "bunch of fives" in the joker's right eye, bringing the claret from both fist and eye.

Things looked squarey for a while, but, as soon as mutual explanations could be made, a shake hands was indulged, "one was taken," and when this city was reached, they were as chumby as could be.

Moral—Be sure you're right, then go ahead.

NOTICE.

REMEMBERED THE BOYS.

Mr. J. W. Morrison, Manager, and Mr. M. P. Brown, Jr., Chief Clerk of the J. E. M. Milling Co., did the handsome thing by the tired, hungry and wet fire-laddies, on Friday morning, after the big elevator fire was under control.

They took the boys to Frenchy's restaurant and gave them the best to be had to comfort the inner man. The boys felt strong enough, when they finished the meal, to fight another big fire, which they happily, were spared.

GRAND AND NOBLE WORK.

The Salvation Army, Capt. Haag in command, did splendid work on Christmas Day. They had a good dinner for the worthy poor at the barracks in the West End, at which a large number were fed.

In addition, some 200 baskets were sent out to those who were not able to attend the dinner. Each basket had the following contents: One sack of flour; ½ peck potatoes; 1 chicken; 1 can fruit; 1 loaf bread; 2 lbs. sugar; 1 lb. coffee; hominy and apples.

This organization is doing a great deal of good among the poor, and deserve success, especially as they are doing it "in His name."

Hammond & Co. have just unloaded one thousand ten foot sealing. They have a large assortment of dry building lumber.

14-4t.

ANOTHER SMALL BLAZE.

A small blaze started in the Broom Factory, in the Penitentiary, on Saturday afternoon, but it was quickly extinguished by the prison fire brigade, with but small loss. No alarm was turned in.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

Wade H. Watts, a somewhat notorious witness in the Goebel assassination case, has been detected in stealing hogs in Fayette county, and placed under arrest. He shipped some of the stolen meat to his friends in this city. "One by one the roses fall."

Hammond & Co. have just delivered 55,000 of their celebrated Washington Red Cedar Shingles to the new Southern Presbyterian Church, 14-4t.

SATURDAY'S SHOOTING.

In a difficulty in a saloon in "Craw," on Saturday night, a man by the name of Alex. Turner, who claims Louisville as his home, was shot through the left arm and across the left breast by a man by the name of Robert Montgomery, the saloon keeper.

The circumstances leading up to the affair are hard to get at, but are said to indicate self-defense.

Montgomery was arrested and released on bond.

Turner is thought not to be seriously wounded and left for his home in Louisville.

ATTEMPT AT ARSON.

An attempt was made on Sunday night, about 10 o'clock, to burn the residences of Mr. Wm. Crosby (an aged white man) and Mr. J. W. Daugherty (colored), near the city limits, on East Main street.

A box saturated with grease was placed just where it would communicate the blaze to the frame work of the houses, and was set fire to.

Passers-by discovered the fire and it was extinguished without loss.

CRUOP.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup is usually well known. No time should be lost in the treatment of it and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by all druggists.

FRANKFORT MAN SHOOTS COLORED MAN IN VERSAILLES.

On Monday last, Mr. M. E. Gordon, the "second-hand man" became involved in a difficulty with a colored man in Versailles, during which the colored man drew a knife and started after Gordon, when Gordon shot the man. He was arrested and held in $1,000 to the circuit court, which he gave and was released. A case of self-defense was shown.

MASONIC ELECTION.

The following officers were elected by Hiram Lodge, No. 4, A. Y. M., on Monday night, for the ensuing year:

DEATH OF EDITOR W. A. HOLLAND.

Mr. W. A. Holland, editor and proprietor of the Eminence Constitutional, died suddenly in Louisville, on Tuesday night last, of apoplexy. Mr. Holland had just reached the city, eaten his supper and started to a hotel when he was stricken and fell on the street. He was taken to his room and physicians summoned, but passed away before any of them reached his side. He was 76 years of age, and had been a publisher all his life. He was an agreeable and versatile writer.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. L. D.

Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first rising, we often find a considerable collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to digest; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horseradish Syrup will at once dispose of it. This medicine is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I would most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle at Paul B. Weitzel's.

DOUBLES CAPACITY.

As stated by us some time since the Frankfort Ice Co. has just completed an enlargement of its plant by which its capacity to manufacture ice has been doubled. This was greatly needed, as the demand upon this clever company for ice in hot weather was taxing its capacity to the utmost, and when any accident happened, it had to obtain additional supplies elsewhere.

It is now able to meet any demands likely to arise any time in the near future.

We congratulate these hustling young men upon their success, which they fully deserve, as they are enterprising and industrious.

APPOINTED TO POSITIONS UNDER NEW REGIME.

Auditor-elect S. W. Hager has announced some of the new appointments to take positions when he goes into office on Monday next:

Mr. Henry R. Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling, to be Insurance Commissioner.

Mr. Mott Ayers, of Fulton, Deputy Insurance Commissioner.

Mr. W. Jule Day, of Louisville, to be Assistant Auditor.

10,858.

Is the ticket which is entitled to the Child's Range at Reading's. The holder of this ticket will please present it at once at Reading's and secure the prize. If this ticket is not presented by Monday, Jan. 4, the Range will be given the party who held the second draw from the box. All parties will hold their tickets until Range is given away.

DISLOCATE HER SHOULDER.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Forest Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and she was very much in pain. Son mentioned that she had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did quickly returned and enabled her to sleep well, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by all druggists.

DAMAGED WHEAT SOLD.

The insurance companies who carried the insurance on the wheat in the J. E. M. Milling Co.'s elevator, sold the same on Thursday, to St. Louis, Mo., parties for $11,000 cash. The new owners are manufacturers of the serial breakfast foods so much used now.

WATER PIPE BREAKS.

A water pipe in the basement of the State Capitol broke, on Tuesday night, and flooded that portion of the building to the depth of some four feet. Workmen were at once put to work to pump out the water and repair the break.

BIG LOT OF 'GATORS.

When Col. Lou Hammond's foreman at his lumber yards, on Wilkinson street (Capt. John T. Daniel) unloaded a car load of shingles, received from New Orleans, La., on Thursday, he found among the bales a good half dozen alligators from 12 to 16 inches long. Owing to their long, cold ride, the 'gators were torpid, but when thawed out, made things pretty lively for a while.

Go and see them.

DR. A. A. BAILEY LANDS A PLUM.

Dr. A. A. Bailey, of Bailey's Mill, this county, has been appointed to the vacant place as Assistant Physician at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, at Lexington. Dr. Bailey made a great race for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk. He is a clever gentleman, and we congratulate him upon his success.

HARVIELAND.

Well, another Christmas has past without any accidents of note occurring in our town. Just a finger or two bent, and a few splinters, off of those jobbing sticks thrust through the hands, is about all that has been reported.

Mr. R. H. Suter has sold one of his fine tobacco farms to Mr. Dennis Thurman, of Shelby county.

Mr. Suter is a man of few words, but one thing we do know is a judge of tobacco land that wants to buy, after a peep, never passes us by.

The sale at Mr. Forrest Harrard's Tuesday, was largely attended, and the bidding was very lively. Everything sold for fair prices. The candlesticks were thicker than fleas in a hog's bed.

We only regret to say that Mr. Forrest Harrard departs Tuesday next for the Mardi Gras; also from Chicago Friday, February 12, for Mexico and California via New Orleans.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overrated. The person who is in the open air, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is most certain by German Syrup, as is a good night's sleep and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can however be stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and begin to feel well are those that use German Syrup. Trial size, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

BRYANTTOWN.

(Delayed Letter.)

We have been visited by another matinial of typhus, this time far more destructive than the one that visited our community last winter. Not only ours, but several adjoining communities shared the fate.

Whooping cough has again invaded our town.

Mrs. Mintie Parish and children, of Elkhorn, Tenn., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pulliam, of Bark Branch.

Died—At the insane asylum, in Pittsburgh, Dec. 23d. Mr. Geo. M. Stigers of Mt. Zion. He was an honest and upright citizen, highly esteemed by his many friends. He will be sadly missed. Mr. Stigers has been a life-long sufferer from spinal trouble, and was at last attacked with a congestive disease of the brain, which developed mental derangement. His physician and friends decided to send him to the asylum, in hopes that he would be benefited by it. His disease was beyond control. After a stay of some two weeks, death came to relieve his great sufferings. He leaves his heartbroken wife and six children, five boys and one girl, a sorry-sickened mother, and two sisters. The remains were sent home Dec. 10th, and next evening the funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. B. Adams, of Frankfort, at Mt. Zion Church. The body was returned to mother earth in the family burying ground to await the resurrection morn. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. H. Suduth, Ezra Allison, Allen Stigers, Ezra Shultz, and W. H. and W. H. Moore. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing ones. "Weep not, dear mother, and loving wife. Your heavenly father knoweth best."

He holds your prayers; He knows your grief. And has given a sufferer happy rest."

The prettiest event of the season was the wedding of Mr. Willie P. Stratton and Miss Naomi G. Clark, at Mt. Zion Church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 23d. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the contracting parties. At the appointed time the bridal party arrived. The first to enter the church were little Misses Jessie Gains and Jessie Roberts, dressed in white, with green ribbons carrying pink carnations. Then came the bride and groom. The bride was a picture, dressed in white tulle, made on train, and tastefully trimmed in lace and ribbon. She carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. J. Nugent, of Frankfort. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple, accompanied by the bride's sister, left on the L. & N. train for Louisville, and were there entertained by the groom's sister, Mrs. Jessie Basket. They remained there until Saturday evening, when they returned to the home of the bride, where a hearty reception was in waiting for them, and a table spread with choice viands.

"May heaven's blessing crown their union."

May they live a long and useful life.

A sacred union, divinely given, A faithful husband and a loving wife."

Mr. J. Will Calvert, who has been very ill, is improving slowly.

Died—Near Minorsville, Mr. Jos. Romans, aged about 75 years.

Miss Beatrice Duvall, who is a stenographer in Cincinnati, is at home for the holidays.

Messrs. J. Sprake, Herman Robinson and R. C. Duvall, all students at the State College, are at home for the holidays.

Albert Lewis, colored, who is an efficient butcher, has killed 199 hogs for our farmers this season. He only charged 35 cents per head, which makes it much cheaper for the owners to do the work themselves. He thoroughly understands his business.

Dr. A. Stewart has sold his drugs, etc., to Mr. O. N. Jameson, who will soon take charge. Mr. Jameson is a thoroughly competent pharmacist.

We regret to learn that Rev. T. Warn Beagle, the venerable and able pastor of our Baptist Church, is suffering with dry gangrene in his right arm, and the result is fatal to the outcome. Bro. Beagle is a truly pious man, one who lives his religion every day. His good wife is still very sick, but is somewhat better than she has been. The immediate family of these good people are with them.

Our school community was saddened by the sudden death of our venerable friend, Mr. C. H. Duvall (Uncle Nealy), who died Saturday morning, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Thomason.

Our correspondent sent us an order of our friend, but we had already written an article, which may be found in another column.]

SEA OF AZOF DISAPPEARING.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 16.—The sea of Azof is disappearing and reducing in area and circumference. At Taganrog the waters have receded to such an extent during the last five days that the bed of the sea is visible for a distance of three thousand feet. High winds have raised clouds of sand seaward, covering the town. Vessels are lying high and dry, and the greatest confusion prevails in the harbor. Work in the factories has had to be reduced to a minimum, owing to lack of water.

REGULAR BLIZZARD.

When the writer of this article got into a buggy in Versailles, on Christmas night, to start home, the moon was shining brightly and the weather was ideal, just enough of frost in the atmosphere to make it bracing.

When some six miles from Versailles the clouds began to gather and a specially heavy cloud seemed to hang over this city.

Just when passing Jett's Station the wind, which had begun to blow furiously, brought with it a blinding rain, which in a few minutes was succeeded by clouds of snow and sleet.

The wind blew so fiercely that it was with difficulty that the horses we were driving could go out of a walk, and it seemed as though the buggy, horse and all would be blown from the pike several times. When we reached the city the overcoat and cap were frozen hard up to the elbows, and had to be thawed out before we could take it off.

This was but a small illustration of the merry old climate we have in the blue grass since the big forests have been destroyed.

THELMA

Is being exploited this season with a cast of pronounced excellence at the head of which we find Miss Ruth Eldridge in the name.

Maria Corelli is unique in her personality; her stories are written in a vein which is all her own, and no one of these more so than that much read one, Thelma, which, as a play, is now in its third successful year. Thelma is a tale of quaint characters and picturesque locale. The same may be said of the play. It is totally unlike any other drama now being produced on the stage. The first, second and last acts are all laid in northern Norway, and the customs and habits of the people who live there have never before been made the subjects of a drama. The exterior of the old bonde's home near the Alteh Fjord, shown in the first act, in the summer time, with its beautiful foliage glowing in the light of the sun, which at midnight still shines resplendently in the heavens, and in the last act pictured as it appears during the winter mantled in snow, devoid of vegetation and without light save that which is derived from the Aurora Borealis gives to the scenic artist a chance to paint two opposites of the same scene, such as could not be found in any other latitude of the inhabited world, and Manager Chase gave to both electrician and artist the opportunity to do all they could devise for these scenes; the result of which is said to be two creations of beauty such as seldom have been offered to the public. The snow avalanche in Act IV, which is produced by means of electricity, has been pronounced one of the most realistic of all modern stage novelties. IJdegezorg, the most famous waterfall of Norway, is also shown in Act II. The scenery was painted from original photographs of the actual scenes. The production is, therefore, one of educational interest, and should commend itself to the interest of our best theatre-goers of whose patronage we believe it to be worthy. "Thelma" will be produced at the Capital Theatre on Monday, Jan. 4.

THANKS.

We desire, on behalf of the people of our native and beloved city, to return their and our thanks to the able editor of the Louisville Herald for the timely and well-written article in regard to the proposed new Capitol, which we give in another place.

Spreads in dry grass and weeds, so does an inflammation of the throat—the result of a cold—grow down into the sensitive air passages and the lungs. If you catch the fire, should be promptly dealt with. When you begin to cough use Allen's Lung Balsam. It will certainly heal the sore throat and lungs and it may save you from consumption.

DEATHS..

DUVALL.—At the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. R. L. Thomas, near Stamping Ground, on Saturday morning, Mr. Cornelius H. Duvall, aged 76 years, of rheumatism.

Verily a strong pillar in Zion has fallen and a sturdy soldier of the Cross has won his crown.

"Uncle Nealy," as everybody was fond of calling this grizzled veteran, was a true Christian gentleman, with all that the name implies. Quiet, unassuming, yet earnest and zealous, he lived, day by day, the truth of the religion he had professed for so many long years.

As a good brother once said, "his pocketbook was baptized along with his person." He was ever ready to help bear the burden of the cause he loved, whether physical or financial. He raised a large family of children to rise up and call him blessed, and they are worthy citizens of their several communities.

Genial and wholesouled, his society was sought by all, both young and old. He had never been wholly the same, however, since the wife of his youth was called home in advance. There was a subdued and chastened spirit about him that was pathetic and drew his friends only the nearer to him.

He had never been sick to amount to anything in his long life, and when the insidious disease that laid him low appeared, his sturdy form yielded (as is so often the case with strong and stout men) all too soon.

But, thank God, he was not afraid when the white-winged messenger came to convey his tried spirit to the better land. Quietly and peacefully, as a child going to sleep, his weary head was pillow'd on the arms of his Savior, and he went home gladly, to meet the "loved ones over there."

The funeral services were conducted from the Owenton Baptist Church, on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Rev. E. F. Wright, of New Liberty, and the loved form was laid to rest by the side of his wife in the Owenton cemetery.

He was a member of the Stamping Ground Baptist Church and will be sadly missed.

He leaves six sons, four daughters, two brothers and two sisters too mourn his death.

Farewell, dear brother, farewell. We shall strike hands again on the other shore, where no parting words are ever spoken and no bitter tears are shed. Until then, farewell.

WALKER.—In Chicago, Ills., Mrs. Amanda Morehead Walker, widow of Mr. Sam'l J. Walker, and eldest daughter of the late Gov. Chas. S. Morehead, died of pneumonia.

Mrs. Walker was born and raised in this city and was married in Ascension Church, in 1856, by Rev. J. N. Norton, to Mr. Walker.

She leaves three sons and three daughters to mourn her death.

A WORD IN TIME.

Now that the holidays are passed, we think it time to say a word in advance, looking to the next return of Christmas in advocacy of an ordinance absolutely prohibiting the shooting of canon crackers, dynamite cartridges, roman candles, etc., on the streets of our city.

There were quite a number of serious accidents narrowly averted, during the recent celebration, no thanks to the thoughtless crew of boys and young men who were indulging in the so-called sport.

There were quite a number of ladies who were made quite ill by the nervous strain of the constant discharge of these "noise-makers."

A number of ladies had come to the city to make Christmas purchases, alone in vehicles, who were forced to return home without doing so owing to the danger to themselves from having their horses frightened.

We, of course, want children and youths to have a good time at this joyous season, but they must remember that they have no right to have a good time at the expense of danger to the lives and health of other people.

We advocate this measure at this time, in order to prevent loss to the dealers in explosives and so that it may be generally known, in advance, that the use of these things will not be allowed again.

We hope the City Council will take the proper steps while the matter is fresh in the minds of everybody.

On the Threshold of a New Year.

WE WISH TO THANK

those who have helped to make our last year's business a success. We acknowledge appreciation and extend to our patrons the sincerest wish that the coming year may be one of health and prosperity.

Our aim has been to conduct a drug store that should conserve in every way the best interests of the public. The accomplishment of this purpose has been made possible by the steadfast adherence of those to whom this greeting is extended.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by all drug-gists.

"WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME."

A series of brilliant military pictures set to inspiring patriotic music with a well defined story of Civil War times, is the result of the latest effort of Stanislaus Strange and Julian Edwards, the authors of "Dolly Varden." It is called "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," and has been described as the first and only true American comic opera ever produced. It was welcomed in New York, where it was played all last season, to crowded houses and enthusiastic audiences as a genuine novelty. Although the story is as interesting and well sustained and full of stirring situations as any war play ever written, it is the music which has won all hearts. It is of that popular kind which is at once caught up and arranged for dance music, pot pouris, and medleys and played in all the hotels and restaurants most effected by fashionable people. One number, "My Own United States," has been introduced among the patriotic songs of the country, and is being sung in the public schools. When that was first sung with unusual fervor by the entire company on the opening night at the New York theatre, the audience rose and cheered for several minutes, a singular demonstration for a New York audience usually so cold, tranquil and collected. Among other numbers in the opera that have become enormously popular are "Just Marry the Man and be Merry," "Good Bye Yankees," "My Honey-suckle Girl" and "Years Touch Not the Heart." The gem of the opera, however, is "Katie, My Southern Rose." The quaint dresses of the time of the Civil War are reproduced with fidelity, and most of the time the stage is full of pretty girls decked out in the frill and enormous crinoline hoop skirts of a generation ago. The company engaged by Mr. F. C. Whitney is an exceptionally good one and one of the largest comic opera organizations ever formed, while the production as a whole is said to be most gorgeous, rivaling any of the so-called spectacular pieces, in point of scenic splendor or lavish riot of color in costume and mechanical effects. The company, numbering eighty people, mostly pretty girls, will be seen at the Capital Theatre, Saturday, January 9, 1904.
